

MS. ABBY

Hello, my name is Abby Morrell. I have been the lead teacher of the Pre-K Pandas since August 2014 and am loving every minute of it!

I have moved a few times in my life, but love to call Lexington my home! I attended Beaumont Middle School, here in Lexington. I graduated from Christian Academy of Louisville in Louisville, KY. I found myself back in Lexington for college at UK! (Go Cats!)

As of January 2016, I have my CDA and Director's Credential. Additionally, I am finishing out my Bachelor's in Early Childhood Education. I have been teaching preschool aged children both in the classroom and as a nanny for 5 years (as of November 2015).

As a teacher, I strive to set high goals for children and help them achieve these learning goals through instruction, educational activities, and play. Children have a knack for pleasantly surprising me with their ability to learn and understand new things! I enjoy being kept on my toes daily with stories, jokes, and shared learning experiences. While we learn a lot, I always strive to have a loving and fun classroom, so it never quite feels like work!

In my time off, I enjoy spending time with my husband, Justin, and dog, Sven. I enjoy shopping, decorating (my very unique home), and running. My favorite color is mint green, favorite restaurant is Saul Good, and favorite drink (and flavor of anything) is coffee!

Did you know?

I was born in Columbus, OH. Though I was born a Buckeye, I definitely bleed blue. Go Cats!

I am the youngest of four children in my immediate family; I am both the baby, and the only girl!

My (very large) extended family, consisting of 37 cousins, 15 aunts and uncles, and 3 grandparents, all reside in Wisconsin. This explains my affinity for the Green Bay Packers!
